

2024 PEI Museum Heritage Award Recipients

Heritage Recognition Awards:

- Aggi-Rose Reddin - for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through initiatives with the Glenaladale Heritage Trust
- Dianne Porter – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book Unhistoric Acts: Inside the Women’s Movement on Prince Edward Island
- Earle MacDonald – posthumous – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk heritage through the social media page Earle’s Picture Restoration Prince Edward Island
- Glen Kelly - for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through conservation initiatives within Hillsborough River
- Jamie Thomas – for sharing and preserving Lennox Island First Nation and Mi'kmaq culture on Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk
- Jenene Wooldridge - for her work to share and preserve Mi'kmaq rights, culture, and heritage on Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk
- Leland Currie - sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book Early Settlers of Lot 7 Prince Edward Island
- Lorraine Clements – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book The Girl from 108
- Myrna Babineau - for her work to share and preserve Scottish heritage on Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk
- Nicole Lodge – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book Through the Eyes of a Dog
- St. Patrick’s Ancestral Cemetery Restoration Committee – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through historical research, community engagement, and restoration efforts
- Suzanne Campbell and Jennifer King – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk heritage through The Bessie Carruthers Study Club performance

AWARD OF HONOUR

- Confederation Centre Art Gallery - for their dedication to Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk art history scholarship, public exhibition, education, and the collection and conservation of local artwork

ARCHITECTURAL CONSERVATION PROJECT OF THE YEAR

- Eddy Schwartz – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the exhibition Yesterday, Today II

BOYDE BECK MEMORIAL AWARD

- Linda Hennessey – for her work sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through collecting and archiving stories and genealogies of Black Islanders

CATHERINE HENNESSEY HERITAGE ACTIVISM AWARDS:

- Sophia Bourque (Young Adult Category) - for promoting, preserving, and advocating for Indigenous culture on Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk
- Jacqueline MacNeill Doiron (Adult Category) - for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk heritage through diverse initiatives across Murray Harbour

IRENE ROGERS ARCHITECTURAL AWARD

- Josh Silver - for his work to preserve Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk architectural heritage and make the Anne of Green Gables House wheelchair accessible

MARY CORNFOOT BREHAUT GENEALOGY AWARD | Prix de généalogie Mary Cornfoot Brehaut

- Louis Joseph Arsenault - for preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk heritage through genealogical research of Acadian history

NATURAL HERITAGE ACTIVITY AWARD

- Beth Hoar – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk natural heritage through advocacy, education and conservation initiatives

PUBLICATIONS OF THE YEAR:

- Kathleen Maud MacMillan (Research & Academic) – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book From Sword to Pen
- Joshua MacFadyen (Research & Academic) – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book Time Flies: A History of Prince Edward Island From the Air
- Genevieve Loughlin and Mo Duffy Cobb (Creative) – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwitk history through the book Fiona: Prince Edward Island Accounts of Canada's Biggest Storm

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

- Brenda MacQuarrie Boudreau – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwithk history within the community of Victoria by the Sea

WENDELL BOYLE PERFORMANCE AWARD:

- Peter Gallant – for sharing and preserving Prince Edward Island/Epekwithk history through the creative rendition of the Highland Storm show